

SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

SCOOPS OF GRATITUDE

Cecelia Caro

CeCe is an amazing addition to my department. She has mad skills in marketing, media, and film production. She has a heart of gold, an infectious laugh, and the ability to channel any Disney character. With a light and vivacious attitude; CeCe is a joy to work with. She brings professional fun to our department.

- Barbara Frohlech

Sara Jordan

Sara goes above and beyond every day as the Administrative Manager for the School of Education. She leads from the front, never asking colleagues to do something she herself isn't doing or hasn't done. She inspires us to do our best, and has created a climate of fun, empathy, responsibility and excellence in our School staff community. We are so lucky to have her in our School!

- Aidan Humrich

Brittney Edmondson

Brittney is one of the friendliest, community oriented, and versatile co-workers that I have had the privilege to work with. She is always delightful with a warm smile to all she comes into contact with. I admire the calm and cool collective that she carries with her in all of her interactions. I am so happy to call her friend and colleague.

- Barbara Frohlech

Anna Reynolds-Smith

Anna is the best friend, supporter, co-conspirator there is to work with! She brings sunshine, wisdom and fun every day! Thanks for you being you Anna!!

- Rachel Carbone

The Advising & Transfer Center Team

Shoutout to the Advising & Transfer Center Team!

You all do INCREDIBLE work every day - thank you for your never-ending contributions to support the Seawolf community. Your commitment to reinforce and advocate for student success on our campus is so very appreciated!!

- Michael, Alvin, Joe, & Priscilla (Central Staff)

Christina Thao & Sarah Tucker, MESA Program

Big shout out for the amazing support provided to our MESA students from Christina and Sarah. The program is successful due to the direct support and care you both provide.

Thank you!

- Julie Barnes

SSU

Kendall Newman

Kendall puts 110% into everything that she does. She leans into whatever is needed from her on campus. She has gone above and beyond to be helpful and get to know people across divisions. Than you for your hard work!

- Emily Acosta Lewis

Kim Purdy

Kim Purdy genuinely cares about people's well-being on this campus and has gone above and beyond to not only do her day job, but make sure that everyone has a relaxing yoga space to escape to each week.

- Emily Acosta Lewis

Sonoma State Police Department

We are grateful for all members of the Sonoma State Police Department for all they do to keep the community safe, 24 hours a day / 7 days a week!

- Chief Nader Oweis

Matthew Paolucci

Matthew is the perfect balance of optimism and reality which is what faculty often need on this campus. He has improved faculty morale through his coffee and connections chats and we appreciate his amazing baked goodies! Thanks for being your true self Matthew!

- Emily Acosta Lewis

Lauren Morimoto

Lauren has been a leader on this campus for years but has taken us through a particularly difficult past year. Her real talk is needed and appreciated. She cares so deeply about her students and colleagues and makes a lifelong impact on them.

- Emily Acosta Lewis

Shelly Stephens

As the heart and soul of the Communications and Media Studies Department, Shelly is the at the center of every success we have as a department. She does everything in her power to support our students' academic and personal success!

- Emily Acosta Lewis

SSU

Tiffany O'Neil

Tiffany is always at the ready to extend a helping hand to those of us that don't regularly put on events! Her thoughtfulness, knowledge and experience are truly appreciated!

- Alicia Hodenfield

SSU

Mary Lenoir

Mary always goes above and beyond and in providing individualized advising assistance to students to provide them with the tools to be successful in the classroom and in life. She challenges students to work to their fullest potential and is an outstanding role model. Mary is also the ideal team member who works diligently to fulfill the core values of Sonoma State University.

- Brent Boyer

Christy Giambastiani

Christy is extremely passionate and dedicated in her work with students and their families, especially with students on the autism spectrum, in helping them be successful in the college environment and to begin planning for a transition into the workplace. Christy provides outstanding training opportunities for students, staff and faculty on neurodiversity throughout the year and is an expert in the field.

- Brent Boyer

Michael Eynon

Michael is an outstanding advisor who quickly connects with his students and provides them with the tools to see that their goals are achievable by breaking things down into manageable steps. This is in addition to Michael overseeing the administration of over 1000 accommodated exams this past year!

- Brent Boyer

Noelia Franzen

Noelia is an amazing technology expert that speaks in a language that even I can understand. Noelia meets individually with at least 100 students to ensure that they have the most appropriate assistive technology to access their instructional materials, and leads a team that converts approximately 100,000 pages of text into accessible formats for students with print-related disabilities.

- Brent Boyer

Sydney Johnston

Sydney quickly gains the rapport of her students by providing advising and accommodation support in a calm and caring manner. Sydney encourages students to think about their future and how graduate school might be the next step towards reaching their educational and employment goals.

- Brent Boyer

Stephanie Graham

Stephanie is passionate about her work supporting students with disabilities. She helps students feel welcome, because it can sometimes be difficult to come forward to ask for support. Stephanie takes pride in providing instructional materials in accessible formats to students with disabilities.

- Brent Boyer

DSS

Anna Reynolds-Smith

Anna is the consummate professional. She is kind and patient when explaining budget-related things to those who don't understand that world. Additionally, she takes the time to mentor newer professionals on campus. She is much appreciated on campus!

- Emily Acosta Lewis

Facilities Front Office Staff

The front office team is always there ready to support the campus with kindness and care. We are all grateful for your assistance and positive and joyful attitudes. Thank you for always being helpful with the customers and working to resolve issues quickly.

- Facilities Management Leadership

Facilities Auto Shop

From flat tires to replacing brakes, the Auto Shop repairs carts and vehicles quickly so departments can get back to doing what's important to them. The shops expertise is invaluable to the campus.

- Facilities Management Leadership

Facilities Lock Team

Thank you, Lock Team, for handling the endless access uploads and getting individuals into spaces around campus. You have worked tirelessly to resolve complicated technical electronic issues in Stevenson. We are grateful for your persistence and ability.

- Facilities Management Leadership

Facilities Maintenance Team

We see and appreciate everything the maintenance team accomplishes from repairing leaks, to building fences. You handle a wide range of issues so the campus community can thrive in their environments and for this we are thankful.

- Facilities Management Leadership

SSU

Facilities Management Plumbing Shop

Whether it's installing a water heater or augering a toilet, the Plumbing Shop performs difficult and often unpleasant tasks daily. We thank you for your significant contributions to the campus community.

- Facilities Management Leadership

SSU

Facilities Electric Team

Keeping the campus energized and well lit is a massive responsibility. We appreciate all the work, the Electric team does to keep the power on and electricity flowing. Thank you for keeping the campus bright and working to make the campus more sustainable.

- Facilities Management Leadership

Facilities Central Plant

The Central Plant team are masters of juggling many things. From heating and cooling to fire/life safety, this team is all over campus all hours of the day maintaining environments that are comfortable and safe for positive learning, living, and working experiences for our students, staff, and faculty.

- Facilities Management Leadership

Facilities CPDC Team

The CPDC team is continuously working to improve buildings, infrastructure, and other spaces at SSU so the campus community can learn, teach, and play in better spaces. Many thanks for working hard to elevate Sonoma State.

- Facilities Management Leadership

SSU

Facilities Custodial Team

Team members have to believe in the merit of their own work and the work of their teammates.

Thank you, Custodial Team, for believing in teamwork and the great work performed this last year. You have all had challenges and you have overcome them all. Here is to a job well done!

- Facilities Management Leadership

Facilities Pool Team

We are grateful to our Pool team for the hard work they put in daily to keep the pools clean and safe for our students, staff, faculty, and guests. Your efforts are noticed and greatly appreciated.

- Facilities Management Leadership

Thank you to Cheryl Santa Cruz who is our HRIS expert. Your support of Human Resources on the projects, queries and day-to-day questions is so appreciated. We are forever grateful for you!

- Trisha Ramos

SSU

SSU

Lena Fromme

There are dreamers and there are those who make our dreams come true. Thank you, Lena, for all that you do to turn ideas into reality by setting up the paperwork for approvals, sourcing and purchasing materials, providing valuable feedback on cost savings, and designing quality teaching kits that bolster our reputation. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

Jeffery Reedy

As a grant-funded department, the EdEon STEM Learning Department needs people who can innovate quickly using coding, engineering, and physics. Mr. Reedy never fails to impress with his technology solutions, whether it be code for 9th graders creating a mud-based fuel cell, or building a NASA JPL Rover with an autistic intern, and everything in between. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

Aurore Simonnet

World renowned for her scientific illustrations, Ms. Simonnet keeps SSU and the EdEon STEM Learning Department in the spotlight, where it is making merging black holes and neutron stars real for the general public, initiating the Los Lobos character's look, or making the invisible magnetic field around earth visible in educational illustrations. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Darlene Yan

New to SSU and to the EdEon STEM Learning Department, Ms. Yan has jumped in and quickly contributed to supporting our complex budget projections to creating high school student guides from the teacher guides for our NASA's Neurodiversity Network project. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Troy Wilson

Newly graduated from SSU, Mr. Wilson has already provided valuable support to the EdEon STEM Learning team with his troubleshooting issues students in 9th grade classrooms were having coding on our custom Web App, keeping our computer systems running, creating dynamic and well-design websites.
Thank you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Casey Lewiston

Having launched an innovative Web App as part of our 9th grade integrated STEM+Coding curriculum, tested it with over 500 California students in Roseland and rural communities, Casey continues to support EdEon STEM Learning with support as we work to expand the use of this technology. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Erin Rock & the HR Team

Our grant-funded EdEon STEM Learning Department is continually changing with the grant-funded projects that begin and end, as others start us in another direction. This leads us to some complicated HR needs, which the entire HR Department helps us navigate with Erin Rock as our main support. We couldn't do it without you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Erin Taylor & the HR Team

As we navigate compliance and learning new ways of treating one another using the platinum standards, Erin Taylor has been incredibly helpful to EdEon STEM Learning both in ensuring that our team's SSU trainings are relevant to our jobs as well as providing a very appreciated MPP training series with other HR colleagues. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Julie Barnes

There are few at SSU who know the ins and outs of the rules and regulations, like Julie Barnes. Her expertise and experience, not to mention her problem solving and can-do attitude, has kept our EdEon STEM Learning group headed in the right direction when the grant-funded projects need seem completely at odds with SSU policy and procedures. Thank you for your guidance!

- EdEon Management

Rosie Schramm, Andru Luvisi, Adam Kinmont, & the IT Team

With the grant-funded EdEon STEM Learning projects, there are times when the needs of the grant deliverables run contrary to the needs of the SSU IT system. Rosie, Andru, Adam and the entire IT team help us navigate solutions to these apparent contrary requirements, allowing us to remain within the SSU system, while meeting our deliverables. Thank you!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Payroll Team

With the ever-changing payroll of the EdEon STEM Learning team, we appreciate how well the payroll team works with us to ensure our staff and students are paid accurately and on time! With multiple fund numbers to work with, this is no small feat and we appreciate what you do!

- EdEon Management

SSU

Accounts Payable & Procurement Team

With the ever-changing purchasing and contract needs of the EdEon STEM Learning team due to the new, continuing, and ending grant-funded programs, we appreciate how quickly and precisely the accounts payable and procurement team works with us. We are grateful for your support with the thousands of purchases and hundreds of contracts each year.

- EdEon Management

SSU

Sonoma State Faculty

Thanks to the faculty at Sonoma State, each and everyone—part-time, full-time, lecturers and tenure-track. These challenging years have demonstrated the depth of commitment you have for our students. You have given of yourselves in remarkable ways, and we thank you for being the amazing teacher-scholars you are.

- Provost Karen Moranski

Sonoma State Staff & Administrators

Thanks to all staff and administrators across Sonoma State who work tirelessly to make sure our students have the best experience possible at Sonoma State. I am grateful for your dedication and hard work. Thank you!
